

BOAT TRIPS

Banff's Grand Scenic Waterway

at BANFF - MOTOR BOATS - ROWBOATS - CANOES

The Bow River at the Bridge is too swift for boating, but beginning at the Boat-house, just a short distance above the bridge, a smooth, wide, deep channel extends ten miles westward, forming an ideal stretch of river for WATER TRAVEL and providing an easy and pleasant route from which to view Banff's finest mountain scenery.

The Motor Launch Trip on the Bow River is one of the best of the Banff trips that every visitor should take. It is an ever-changing panorama of beautiful views, mountain and river scenery combined. Appropriately described as

"Ninety Pictures in Ninety Minutes"

IN ADDITION to splendid glimpses of Mount Edith's spire and the snow capped peaks of the Massive Range, all the surrounding mountains appear to better advantage when viewed from the river, than from any other viewpoint. At certain times during the day the wild animal and bird life of the park frequent the river banks.

BOATING and CANOEING on the Bow River, Echo River and Vermilion Lakes

THE ECHO RIVER joins the Bow just a mile above the bridge and for two miles is a perfect stream for canoeing; shallow, clear water, easy current, and beautiful shady banks. Willow Creek, leading from the Echo River into Vermilion Lakes, is an enchanting stream. A trip by Canoe or Row boat on these fascinating waterways is one ever to be remembered and is not expensive.
